

The Jar Room

a community art installation

The Jar Room is a collaborative community art installation led by multi-disciplinary artist Lauren Lysaght and facilitated by the Sarjeant Gallery, open to all ages and artistic backgrounds.

The project involves using recycled glass jars and materials that are metallic in colour or nature to create mini artistic displays by a broad range of participants from the local community. The result will be a huge combined artwork, every jar will become part of an installation at the Sarjeant Gallery, opening 9 September, 2017.

If you'd like to donate jars / metallic materials for the project:

All donated jars and materials can be delivered to Front of House, Sarjeant on the Quay during normal opening hours, final donations no later than Friday 14 July, 4pm

- please ensure jars have lids and are clean with no labels

Completed jar drop off:

Decorated jars ready for exhibition can be delivered (with an entry form) to the Front of House, Sarjeant on the Quay no later than Friday 18 August, 4pm

Entry forms available at Sarjeant on the Quay, 38 Taupō Quay or downloadable: www.sarjeant.org.nz/gallery/the-jar-room

Participants are invited to create a maximum of 3 jars per person

Please include no: perishables / food items / dangerous or flammable goods / organic materials

We will be running FREE making workshops on: Saturday 22 July 11am – 1pm
Saturday 5 August 11am – 1pm

Workshops are open to all ages/family groups, bookings essential through Front of House, Sarjeant on the Quay. Numbers are limited to 20 people per session. Bring jars/materials, extra materials provided. more info: www.sarjeant.org.nz/gallery/jar-room-workshop

After the exhibition we will have TWO collection days only - Sunday 3 & Monday 4 December, 2017. Participant's jars will be available for collection from the object-based Gallery, upstairs at the i-SITE between 10am – 4pm both days. After this date, any remaining jars uncollected will be recycled so it is very important to collect on the dates listed if you'd like your jar back.
