Kate Fitzharris Library of Things

5 May – 24 June, 2018

Current Tylee artist-in-residence Kate Fitzharris will be stationed at Sarjeant on the Quay Wednesdays and Thursdays 1.30–4.30pm, for the duration of her Library of Things community project. For this project she would like to involve the local community by inviting participants to share ceramic objects that are significant in their daily lives. For more information visit www.sarjeant.org.nz/gallery/kate-fitzharris

Beyond the Frame From the Collection

19 May – 5 September, 2018

This exhibition highlights artworks that go beyond the limitations of the frame with various shaped supports, works that spill down the wall and sculptural paintings. Artists represented include Robert McLeod, Gavin Hurley, and Miranda Parkes, as well as a significant installation by Gavin Chilcott Peter at 50 with Lares and Saints.

Maureen Lander: Flat-Pack Whakapapa

26 May – 22 July, 2018

Just as whakapapa (genealogy) reflects someone’s lineage and biology, the starting line of a kete determines how its patterning and size will develop. For Flat-Pack Whakapapa, Maureen Lander has created three installations that explore the connections between whakapapa and raranga (Māori weaving). Exhibition developed and toured by The Dowse Art Museum.

Brit Bunkley Ghost Shelter 2016–2018

2 June – 26 August, 2018

Featuring new sculpture and video works, Ghost Shelter encompasses a variety of unconventional sites 3D scanned, printed, rendered and animated as islands of memory.

UPSTAIRS AT THE I-SITE, 31 TAUPŌ QUAY

Creature

14 April – 5 August, 2018

Animals have served as inspiration for artists for as long as we have been making imagery. This exhibition brings together works by a selection of object makers whose work incorporates animal imagery in some way and some whose works morph animal and human elements together.

Gregor Kregar’s Gnomes 2005–2016, cast glass installed in our object-based gallery at 31 Taupō Quay
