AUTUMN SEASON AT 38 TAUPŌ QUAY

2019 pattillo Whanganui Arts Review

9 March – 12 May 2019

The Whanganui Arts Review is the longest running event of its type in the country and is a valued component of the Sarjeant's annual programme. This selected exhibition is open to all artists working in any media in the Whanganui region, including all areas that link to the Whanganui River, and is a true reflection of this area's creative energy.

Anthony Davies

Selected Works 2011-2019
23 March – 26 May 2019

Anthony Davies has been committed to the media of printmaking over the course of his career. The Whanganui-based artist's subject matter is drawn from his keen observations of the raw state of society. Recurrent themes gleaned from media reports such as poverty, crime, surveillance, protest, rebuilding and utopia, inform his works.

UPSTAIRS AT THE I-SITE, 31 TAUPŌ QUAY

Kate Fitzharris

Things Don't End at Their Edges
16 March – 9 June 2019

Dunedin-based ceramicist Kate Fitzharris was artist-in-residence at Tylee Cottage in early 2018. During her time in Whanganui she invited the community to share stories associated with ceramic objects they owned. This post-residency exhibition weaves together these original stories and the artist's observations of her surroundings and objects discovered during her residency.
