SUMMER SEASON AT 38 TAUPŌ QUAY

Turn of a Century

7 September 2019 – 9 February 2020

To mark the Sarjeant's centenary this exhibition brings together a selection of historical and contemporary works from the Gallery's collection alongside newly commissioned pieces by nine innovative artists.

Julia Holden: Her Indoors

28 September 2019 – 2 February 2020

A suite of over forty new works by inter-disciplinary artist Julia Holden. Featuring painted portraits and audio recordings which combine to form a singular collective portrait of the women Holden met whilst artist-in-residence at Tylee Cottage.

Life and Motorcycles: Rod Coleman 1926 - 2019

21 December 2019 - 13 January 2020

In association with Whanganui bike builder Steve Roberts, the Sarjeant Gallery presents a small display in celebration of Whanganui motorcycle racing legend Rod Coleman. Featuring Coleman's 1940's Velocette and his iconic racing bikes of the '70's and '80's.

ONLINE: My Choice

Each month we invite a member of our community to make a personal selection of their favourites from the Gallery collection. These can be viewed online via the Gallery's website.

Artist Talk: Jae Hoon Lee

Tuesday 10 December 2019 at 7.30pm

Meet Jae Hoon Lee, our new artist-in-residence at Tylee Cottage. Taking his inspiration from the natural world, urban scenes and daily objects, Lee creates digitally collaged photographs and videos. He will discuss his past and current practice and what he's currently working on in Whanganui.

Screening: Paul Callaghan: Dancing With Atoms

Wednesday 29 January at 7pm

An invaluable survey of the work and legacy of Whanganui son and 2011 New Zealander of the year, Sir Paul Callaghan, who was one of New Zealand's most exceptional scientists and public figures. After a career as a physicist, science communicator and entrepreneur, Callaghan turned to art-science collaborations, economics and conservation. To be introduced by film maker Shirley Horrocks.

Tickets: $5/$7 from Sarjeant on the Quay or call 06 349 0506

Screening: Peter Peryer, The Art of Seeing

Thursday 30 January at 7pm

Shirley Horrocks' richly illustrated portrait of the life and career of one of New Zealand's most important photographers, who dedicated his life to seeing and making works of art out of the everyday. Introduced by Shirley Horrocks.

Venue: Davis Lecture Theatre, Whanganui Regional Museum, Watt Street, Whanganui
Tickets: $10/$12 from Sarjeant on the Quay or call 06 349 0506

Concert: Richie & Rosie

Sunday 2 February at 4.30pm

Traditional & contemporary sounds with outrageous punk banjo, powerful evocative fiddle and beautiful vocal harmonies from Ithaca, New York.

Tickets: $20, Gallery Friends & Stars $15. Cash bar 4 to 4.30 & during the interval
Venue: Frank Bar + Eatery, 98 Victoria Avenue

Book event: Imogen by Joanna Margaret Paul

Friday 7 February at 5.30pm

A book about mothering, love and loss. The return of a rare book of poems by one of New Zealand's most eloquent artists and Whanganui local Joanna Margaret Paul, whose career celebrated the domestic and the unseen. To accompany the new edition of Imogen we will show a couple of Paul's films from the same period. This event is a continuation of the Gallery's long involvement with the artist and is presented in partnership with Small Bore Books, Whanganui.

Submission Day: 2020 pattillo Whanganui Arts Review

Tuesday 18 February, 10.30am to 4.30pm

The Sarjeant will be accepting works for the 2020 pattillo Whanganui Arts Review exhibition. Original artworks in any medium, completed in the last 12 months by artists living in the Whanganui region and areas that link to the Whanganui River including Rangitikei and South Taranaki may be submitted.
