Support the Sarjeant

Benefactors have played a major role in the creation and growth of the Sarjeant Gallery. The original Sarjeant Gallery at Pukenu, Queen's Park was built as a result of a significant bequest by landowner and farmer Henry Sarjeant, who died in Whanganui in 1912. The Sarjeant opened in 1919 and its collection, now one of the most significant in New Zealand, has been built with the support of individuals, families, Trusts and companies who have gifted, endowed and donated monies for acquisitions, conservation and touring exhibitions.
