SUMMER SEASON AT 38 TAUPŌ QUAY

2022 Pattillo Whanganui Arts Review

12 November 2022 – 26 February 2023

The 2022 Pattillo Whanganui Arts Review enters its 34th iteration with this year’s exhibition. With over 130 entries on display – the exhibition is a hotbed of creativity from the region and a major highlight of the Gallery’s programme. Our principal sponsor Pattillo provide a generous cash prize to the winner of the Open Award and our Excellence and Merit awards are also supported by local businesses. We won’t spoil the results, so you’ll have to visit the exhibition to see for yourself who took out the top prize.

Peter Peryer: Holy Tomato

3 December 2022 – 12 February 2023

This exhibition, titled after one of Peter Peryer’s photographs Holy Tomato (2006) is just one of over 150 works the Sarjeant Gallery has in its care by the artist. It features works created between 2003 and 2018, which were acquired by the Gallery in 2021 with generous assistance from Peryer’s estate.

Peter Peryer Holy Tomato 2006, digital inkjet pigment print on paper. Collection of the Sarjeant Gallery Te Whare o Rehua Whanganui. Gift of the Peter Peryer estate 2021

Collection Focus: Charles Blomfield

17 December 2022 – 5 March 2023

Part of the Collection Focus series which examines works by a single artist from the Sarjeant collection, this exhibition highlights early New Zealand landscape painter Charles Blomfield (b.1848, d.1926) and is timed to coincide with the 175th anniversary of his birth.

Charles Blomfield Mt Ngauruhoe in Eruption 1909, oil on board. Collection of the Sarjeant Gallery Te Whare o Rehua Whanganui. Gift of the Paltridge family, 2022

UPSTAIRS AT THE I-SITE, 31 TAUPŌ QUAY

New Zealand Society of Artists in Glass Members Show

22 October 2022 – 29 January 2023

The 2022 Members Show at the i-Site Gallery was produced in collaboration with New Zealand Glassworks and New Zealand Society of Artists in Glass (NZSAG). The exhibition features over 50 works from NZSAG members, demonstrating the breadth and variety of glass practice here in New Zealand. There is an opportunity to vote for the Money Poppins & Article People’s Choice award - the ballot box will be at the front desk of the Sarjeant Gallery on the Quay. The prize will be awarded at the culmination of the exhibition.

Works by Lindsay Butler, Judith Le Harivel, Mike Crawford and Bindi Nimmo

Film Screening: Richard Wotton ‘Moments Later’

Thursday 2 March 2023, 7pm

Celebrated Whanganui photographer Richard Wotton is profiled in this short film by Kevin Double and Melita Farley, as he explores the seldom noticed architecture in Whanganui. Wotton has been documenting buildings in the city for almost 50 years. Ignoring the picture postcard views, his work highlights the beauty in functional architecture, and catalogues a unique period in the city’s life. Richard Wotton will be in conversation with Director Kevin Double after the screening. Free, but please book.
